

The Grail Meets Laudato Si'

2018 Seminar Series

You're invited to learn about the Grail, an international movement of women, active in Australia for 80 years and deeply influential on several generations of Australian women.

Explore what it means to be committed to both a deep interior life and a life of commitment to the world, not only through the life story of the Grail movement, its hopes and its achievements, but also through the prophetic vision of Pope Francis in his encyclical, Laudato Si'.

This program has been specifically designed to speak to the concerns of Generations X, Y and Millennials – however all are welcome. Come be energised and inspired!

The series will take place at the Grail Centre, 22 McHatton Street, North Sydney, over 6 Saturdays from 10am to 12pm. The Grail Centre is well served by public transport.
