1. Where there is charity and loving friendship, there is God (Lynn Malley)

We are gathered here together by love of Christ.

Let us rejoice and be glad in Him, in Christ our Lord. And with holy fear let us love the living God, and let us love one another with hearts true and sincere Someday with the Saints in heaven we may behold in all splendor and majesty the face of Christ. Unending joy will be ours in God's presence where we shall love for all ages in praise of God.
